BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

There will be no pictures at Island park tomorrow night.

There will be a Halloween social for all Methodists and their friends Tuesday night in the church vestry. There will be entertainment for all ages. A small admission fee will be charged.

The annual game supper in Dunsterston will be served Thursday, Nov. 2. Besides the various meats announced on the posters soon will be served. This, the management says, was unintentionally omitted from the printed list.

Today the Empire presents Cleo Madison in The Guilty One; Warren Kerrigan in The Code of the Mounted; and Gail Henry in I've Got Yer Number, a comedy. On Monday William Farnum in The Bondman, by Hall Caine, in six acts, will be the attraction.

A chicken-pie supper will be served in Masonic temple Tuesday, Oct. 31, from 5.30 to 7, after which there will be an organ recital by Frank M. Cram. Fred C. Adams will render a solo and military whist will be played. Tickets are on sale by the committee and at the temple.

The Lamowaysee Camp Fire girls gave a Halloween party in the Armory last evening which was largely attended and was a very enjoyable affair. The decorations were in keeping with the season and several of the dances were lighted only by the jack-o-lanterns. Leitsinger's orchestra furnished music and dancing continued until midnight.

Today the Princess theater presents Fred Mace in the Triangle comedy feature, An Oily Secondhand, also the Vitaphone Broadway feature, Ashes, and The Mysteries of the Rail, an episode of The Hazards of Helen. On Monday Blanche Sweet and Thomas Meighan in the Paramount feature, The Duke, will be the attraction, with a Burton Holmes travel picture, Among the Head Hunters.

A Change Was Needed.

The pretty restaurant cashier had applied for a holiday.

"I must recuperate," she said. "My beauty is beginning to fade."

"That so?" said the proprietor.

"What makes you think so?"

"The men are beginning to count their change."—Chicago Herald.

POSTAL EXAMINATION NOV. 11.

For Positions of Clerk and Carrier in Brattleboro Office.

The United States Civil Service commission will hold a competitive examination at Brattleboro, Nov. 11, for the positions of clerk and carrier in the Brattleboro postoffice. As no male applicants were secured from the examination of Oct. 14, qualified persons are urged to make application as it is expected that two substitute appointments will be made from the register established from this examination.

Applicants must have reached their 18th birthday anniversary, but not their 45th, on the date of the examination, and must be citizens of the United States. Male applicants must measure not less than 5 feet 4 inches in height in bare feet. No male applicant who passes the examination will be eligible for appointment either as clerk or carrier who does not weigh at least 125 pounds without overcoat and hat. It will be inadvisable for male applicants whose normal weight is less than 125 pounds to enter the examination. Female applicants are not required to be of any specific height or weight.

Each applicant will be required to submit to the examiner on the day of examination a photograph of himself taken within two years.

For pamphlet of information and the required application blank, address J. A. Austin, local secretary at the Brattleboro postoffice, or District Secretary, 145 Postoffice Building, Boston, Mass., with whom applications must be filed in time for him to arrange for the examination.

PLANS FOR BOYS' CONFERENCE.

Annual Session To Be Held at Burlington in January.

Preliminary arrangements are already under way for the seventh annual Boys' Conference of Vermont to be held in Burlington Friday to Sunday, Jan. 12-14. The conference in Rutland last year drew about 600 delegates from all parts of Vermont.

The gathering is held under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. state committee, co-operating with the local association, the churches and other agencies.

The conference will open on Friday evening with a banquet in the university gymnasium.

There will be three sessions on Saturday in some building to be selected later, the latter part of the day being devoted to a recreation period.

Sunday morning the pulpits of several churches will be occupied by association speakers. A mass meeting will be held in the afternoon, and a public meeting will be arranged for the evening.

Among the speakers who have been invited to be on the program are Albert L. Roberts of New York, dean of the international committee, G. W. Hinckley of Goodwill farms in Maine, Father Harvey, officer of the Order of the Holy Cross, Jared Bonawegon of the New York department of agriculture and others.

Experiments have indicated to Honduras that it may become an important cotton-raising nation.

To Stop Hair Loss and Rid Your Scalp of Dandruff, Use

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Do you have dandruff? Does your hair fall out? Is it getting thinner and the parting more pronounced every day? If so, we advise you to get busy right away and before it is too late.

We are not trying to scare you. We are simply telling you the truth. If you would ward off impending baldness you must check that hair loss and rid your scalp of dandruff.

Start right and start now with the right remedy and stick to it—Newbro's Herpicide.

Use Herpicide daily for a while, then three times a week will be sufficient. Watch the change which takes place in the condition of your hair and scalp.

The scalp is clean and free from dandruff. The hair looks strong and healthy and does not fall out. There is vigor and snap where before the hair was dead, dull and brittle. The itching which is so annoying stops and you enjoy a feeling of coolness and cleanliness hitherto unknown.

Any dealer will sell you Newbro's Herpicide either in 50 cent or $1.00 size. It is guaranteed by The Herpicide Co. The first application will convince you that Newbro's Herpicide is the very thing for the hair. Its odor is delightful. Applications may be obtained at the better barber shops and hair dressing parlors.
